

Year 3 Apparatus Layout

Please note that the small gap between each mat is intentional. It means that children can see when they can safely start to have their go – once the previous child has moved on to the next mat. This is important as it will avoid queues and will encourage maximum activity.