Dear Parents & Carers

This week the Education Secretary for the Government announced that The Schools Bill, which included a minimum 32.5 hour school week, has been dropped.

After consulting parents, we wrote to inform you that our school day would change from January. This has been very difficult to arrange in terms of staffing.

So we now propose that the school day stay as 8.45am – 3.00pm for the rest of this academic year.

We understand that you will have made arrangements for childcare and work. We therefore are consulting you from today until 3pm Tuesday 13 December.

Confirmation of times for the start and end of the day will be sent to you on Wednesday 14 December.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused and for the short notice forced upon us by the dropping of The Schools Bill.

Please send comments via Scholarpack or email, office@woodrow.worcs.sch.uk.

Yours sincerely

Mr R Kieran
Headteacher
